

Dorothy Johnson Shei Scholarship Fund

In celebration of the life and memory of Dorothy Johnson Shei, her family created a scholarship through the Starke County Community Foundation. Shei was born and raised in Knox and was a Knox High School graduate.

Through the Dorothy Johnson Shei Scholarship, her family hopes to give back to Starke County and help students attain their educational goals. Students eligible for the scholarship must meet the following criteria:

- Be a qualified student graduating from Knox High School.
- Have lived in Starke County for at least four years during his/her high school career.
- Are deserving of financial assistance.
- Are likely to succeed at an Indiana accredited college or university.
