

Bella Vita Fund

Bella Vita Pregnancy Resource Center is dedicated to helping with the needs of the people of Starke County, Indiana. They are a nonprofit that helps women and men of all ages with their unplanned pregnancy situation by providing practical, emotional, and educational support. Bella Vita strives to support clients throughout the various decisions that come with any pregnancy. They also offer FREE pregnancy tests, ultrasounds, peer counseling, parenting classes, and so much more! Bella Vita has been actively working within the community for over 9 years. They are committed to helping anyone who walks through their door by giving them the resources needed and showing them the love of Jesus Christ.

By establishing this an agency fund with the Starke County Community Foundation, Bella Vita is able to ensure longevity and additional funding forever.

