

FULTON COUNTY COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

LILLY ENDOWMENT COMMUNITY SCHOLARSHIP

The primary purposes of the Lilly Endowment Community Scholars program (LECS) are 1) to help raise the level of educational attainment in Indiana; 2) to increase awareness of the beneficial roles Indiana community foundations can play in their communities; and 3) to encourage and support the efforts of current and past Lilly Endowment Community Scholars to engage with each other and with Indiana business, government, educational, nonprofit and civic leaders to improve the quality of life in Indiana generally and in local communities throughout the state. With this purpose in mind, the Fulton County Community Foundation scholarship committee seeks candidates who exhibit the ability to succeed at the post-secondary level, who show potential in their chosen field of study, and who exhibit potential as a future leader.

The program will provide one scholarship for full tuition, required fees and a special allocation of up to $900 per year for required books and required equipment for four years of undergraduate study on a full-time basis, leading to a baccalaureate degree at any Indiana public or private college or university accredited by the Higher Learning Commission of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools.

Criteria for Eligibility:

*student must be a Fulton County high school senior, graduating by the end of June 2022, with a diploma from an accredited Indiana High School.

*student must be accepted for a full-time baccalaureate course of study at an accredited public or private nonprofit college or university in Indiana.

*student must have been a resident of Fulton County at least three continuous years prior to high school graduation. The applicant must be a current resident.

Selection Process

1. Applications will be "blinded" and then reviewed by the Community Foundation Lilly Endowment Community Scholarship Committee, comprised of select members of the Fulton County Community Foundation and citizens of Fulton County.
2. From the pool of "blinded" applications, the Community Foundation Scholarship Committee will select Finalists for the Final Phase of the Nomination Process.
3. All Finalists will write a 400 word maximum impromptu essay and participate in an oral interview process.
4. The Scholarship Committee will nominate one recipient and two alternates for one full tuition scholarship.
5. A separate, statewide committee, appointed by Independent Colleges of Indiana, will make the final selection of all recipients in accordance with the criteria and procedures consistent with applicable law and the overall goals of the Lilly Endowment Community Scholarship Program.
